WHAT IS INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT?

Instructor: Professor James Murren

Extension Course Credit #: POLS0496

Schedule #: 17 FA 81255 FC

Dates/Times: Friday, November 3rd, 3-9pm & Saturday, November 11th, 9am-6pm

Location: SH 213

Fee: $221

Course Description: Various theories and practices of international development are utilized every day to address poverty, hunger, lack of water, and other challenges experienced by billions of people. The course provides an overview of theories, practices, critiques and a set of case studies/projects that the instructor has worked on in his fifteen year career in international development.

to register visit www.neverstoplearning.net or call (619) 265-7378 ext. 29