

ΠΣΑ

PI SIGMA ALPHA GAMMA UPSILON CHAPTER

The National Political Science Honor Society is accepting new members for the 2024-25 academic year.

Pi Sigma Alpha is the national political science honors society with 621 chapters throughout the country. San Diego State's chapter, Gamma Upsilon, was initially formed in 1959. It is a student-run organization that accepts applications to the honor society and organizes various activities throughout the academic year.

Admissions criteria for membership:

Undergraduates:

- Must have completed at least 60 total units
- Must have completed at least 12 units in political science, at least 6 of which must be upper-division units, with an average GPA of 3.5 or higher in upper-division political science courses
- Must have at least a 3.0 SDSU and 3.0 cumulative GPA
- Do not need to be political science majors to qualify for membership

Graduates:

- Must be enrolled in the Political Science M.A. program
 - Must have completed at least 9 graduate units in political science, earning at least an A- in all graduate political science courses
 - May not use undergraduate coursework toward graduate student eligibility
-

To apply:

Please submit the membership application form on the Political Science department website to Prof. Kim Twist, Faculty Advisor.

Email applications can be sent to Prof. Twist at ktwist@sdsu.edu. Hard-copy applications can be dropped off in the Political Science Department office (Nasatir Hall 126).